TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS.

[OF THE SOUTHERN PRESS ASSOCIATION.]

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1861, by J. S. THRASHER, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Confederate States of the Northern District of Georgia.

Stoneman's Movements.

RICHMOND, March 27.

A Bristol correspondent of the Whig says Stoneman was at Mosey creek on the 18th, with 4,000 Cavalry. His destination supposed to be Salisbury, North Carolina.

Persons direct from Knoxville report the arrival there from Chattanooga last night of a large number of troops. North Carolina and Lynchburg seemed to be the theme of conversation among officers and men.

Northern News.

RICHMOND, March 27.

The New York Tribune of the 25th says, the Fourth Army Corps, under Gen. Stanley, is reported on the way to Knoxville to join in the West-Virginia campaign. Its strength is estimated at 15,000 to 18,000.

Cavalry force of 6,000, under Stoneman, has left Knoxville and is moving toward Western Virginia.

Fifteen thousand cavalry and mounted infantry left Eastport, Miss., a few days ago, on a gigantic raid, with Mobile as the ultimate objective point.

A Washington telegram says, a doubled leaded article in Forney's Chronicle this morning on peace and the propriety of pardoning even rebel leaders in order to secure it, attracts attention as connected with the President's visit to the front.

A report prevailed in Memphis, on Friday, that Mobile had been evacuated.

Gold still excited; closing at 154.

From the South.

AUGUSTA, March 25.

The Yankees burned, destroyed and evacuated Dalton several days ago. About one thousand of Wilford's cavalry moved eighteen miles above on a tour of observation. Wofford is supposed to have six thousand in entire command.

General Taylor has issued an order that in future field and line officers, and all commands in his department will be held personally responsible for damages committed by their soldiers upon public or private property.

Two transports came up Big Black river, nine miles from Canton, Miss., and removed all cotton found on the banks for Government purposes.

Our troops were ordered not to interfere with the movement of the Yankee force.

Seven thousand in the vicinity of Greensboro' and Tupelo, Miss., are beginning active movements.

A strong Yankee force, with large wagon trains, are moving on Columbus, Miss., from Huntsville.

Gen. Lyons brigade are watching the enemy at Guntown.

Gen. Forrests Headquarters is at West Point, Miss., watching the movements of the enemy.

Armstrong's brigade is operating to check the enemy's advance from Saltville.

A considerable force of the enemy reported between Liberty and Clinton. Gen. Hodge opposing preparations for the defence of Mobile very complete. Provisions for six months seige complete. Gen. Taylor has done everything for a successful defence. The Yankees moved out to Gonzales, fifteen miles from Pensacola and are water bound.

A late term of the Grand Jury of Madison County, Ga., presented Col. Dorrough and cavalry command as a nuisance.

The Savannah Republican of the 17th says last week the telegraph cable (Yankee) was cut at St. Augustine Creek by a negro. Much energy was being used to recover the wire.

The British subjects of Charleston have had the following order issued to them by the British consulate:

CHARLESTON, S. C., U. S., Feb. 20th.

British subjects resident of this place and vicinity are desired to register at this consulate, their names, residences and occupations at their earliest convenience. Those who have already received certificates of nationality must bring them for inspection. All others must be prepared to exhibit papers not only of their nationality, but also neutrality.

(Signed) H. PINCKNEY WALKER,
H. B. M., Acting Consulate at Charleston.

Legare Yates, the former President of the Virginia committee, has been dismissed from the position of chief of fire department.

Sadler, of the Courier office, is employed by the Yankee proprietor of the Ship Lawrence Smith.

Two thousand four hundred bales of cotton which went ashore at the mouth of the Savannah river on the 7th, has been raised, towed to and placed in the dry dock at Savannah.

The Ranger, a new Confederate man of war is cruising on the ocean.

Two Yankee vessels of war has been dispatched to watch the New England coast.

Negro Balls, under the auspices of the military authorities and furnished with guards, take place nightly.

It is announced that the First negro troops, prisoners, were exchanged on February 22d.

AUGUSTA, March 26.

On the 20th of March a number of negroes built a raft on Brier Creek, about 100 miles below this city, and floated out and attempted to navigate the Savannah river near down to within reach of the Yankees at Savannah. The craft struck a torpedo which blew the raft to pieces. Not one of the party has been heard of since—all lost.

The Yankees reported under Grierson came out from Memphis, through Ripley, Miss., one day last week and made a demonstration against Tupelo where they were met by Chalmers and a part of Forrest's command when they retreated in haste towards Memphis.

DAILY CONSERVATIVE.

VOL. I.] RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 1865. [No. 287.

Demonstrations against Mobile, and a flank movement from Pensacola and Milton still threatened.

Thomas's force in Northern Ala. and Mississippi are moving. No indications as to their intentions. It is supposed they will continue to threaten Selma and take it as soon as an opportunity offers and weather permits.

TAKE UP THE RUNAWAY!

RUNAWAY FROM THE SUBSCRIBER, ON THE 4TH February, 1865, my negro man SANDERS, (or SAM.) He is about twenty-three years old, near six feet high, rather spare built, but very perfect in form and action, speak quick and distinct when spoken to, with a good set of front teeth; had on, when he left, a cap, grey pants and blue round-about coat.

It is believed this man (a dark brown color, nearly black,) is making his way to our army near Petersburg, and it may be to the enemy. Now this notice is to request all persons in and out of the army to apprehend said boy so that I get him, and I will give, for his apprehension and delivery to me, five hundred dollars in Confederate currency, or a corresponding sum, if apprehended and confined so I can get him.

IMPORTANT LAND SALE.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE COURT OF Equity of the County of Buncombe, made in the case of John D. Hyman and Wife, against Preston F. Patton and others, I will sell on the premises on the 8th day of April, 1865, the magnificent FARM situated in said county in the Swannanoa River, two miles south of Asheville, containing known as the Homestead of the late Fidelio Patton. It is sold for the purpose of partition. The tract of land is one of the best and most desirable in this part of the State. The land is excellent—much of it BOTTOM, and portions heavily timbered. It is convenient to the flourishing town of Asheville, and lies on the bank of one of the most beautiful streams in the world.

It is convenient to several public highways, and the Western North Carolina Rail Road will probably pass down the river on the bank opposite to it.

A better opportunity to purchase a first rate Farm could not be offered in this part of the State.

Terms made known on day of sale.

I. B. SAWYER,
C. M. E of Buncombe County.
March 24th, 1865. 283—tds.

$2,000 REWARD!

BROKE THE JAIL OF GRANVILLE COUNTY ON Sunday night, the 19th inst., and escaped, WILLIAM and HENDERSON, slaves of James Cooper, who were confined under sentence of death for Rape.

WILLIAM is a black, thick, heavy boy, about 25 years old, full face; about 5 feet 8 inches high.

HENDERSON is dark brown, low, heavy built, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high; about 28 years old.

I will pay Two Thousand dollars for their apprehension and delivery to me, or confined in any jail so I can get them, or one thousand for either.

W. A. PHILPOTT, Sheriff of Granville County.
Oxford, N. C., March 24, 1865. 49—2w*.

BOXES FOR SOLDIERS.

ALL BOXES FOR SOLDIERS OR PRISONERS OF War from North Carolina, delivered to the following named persons will be promptly forwarded free of charge:

Claims for Deceased Officers and Soldiers.

WILSON, N. C., June 20, 1864.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAS BEEN APPOINTED A COMmissioner to investigate, collect and pay over to the parties entitled thereto, all claims for bounty arrearages of pay and allowances, due to the representatives of deceased officers and soldiers from this State.

The parties entitled are: first, the widow of the deceased, if any, if there be no widow then, secondly, the child or children, if there be such, if there be neither widow or children then, thirdly, the father, if there be neither widow, child, children or father then, fourthly, the mother of the deceased, and in default of all of these then, fifthly, the executor or administrator of the deceased.

The claimant or claimants must furnish his, her or their affidsvit, and that of one disinterested witness as to the relationship, and in all cases, where the claimant is not the widow, the affidavit must negative the existence of a claimants of a higher order. The Justice of the Peace, before whom the affidavit is subscribed must certify to the credibility of the witness, and Clerk of the County Court must certify, under the seal of the Court, that he is a Justice of the Peace.

If the claimant or claimant be a child or children of the deceased; and he, she or they be minors, the claim must be propounded by his, her or their guardian, and the fact of his being guardian must be certified to, under seal of the County Court Clerk.

When the claims is made by an executor or administrator, the fact of the executorship or seal by the County Court Clerk.

All of these papers should be sent in duplicate.

Any person directly interested will be furnished, upon application to me, with a proper form of these papers in full; a copy of which, for the greater convenience of parties, will be forwarded as soon as may be practicable to each County Court Clerk.

This commission is intended to facilitate the collection of these claims, and save the claimants all expense.

Parties interested may materially aid me in the investigation of their claims, if at the time of forwarding their paper to me, they will inform me of the date of the death of the deceased, where he died, was killed, whether or not they or any one for them, have received the personal effects which deceased had with him at the time of his death, and whether or not the deceased (if a non commissioned officer or private,) had ever received the State's bounty.

It is very desirable that all claims should be forwarded at as early as may be practicable. In all cases, give the claimants, Post Office and County in full.

RALEIGH, N. C.:

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 1865.

ONE OF THE COMMON accompaniments of the war is waste—ill-judged, unnecessary and wanton waste. Our cause has been put in imminent jeopardy by the reckless improvidence of the army from the beginning. This not only characterises the ordinary private, but is practiced on the largest scale by the highest officers in command. West Point, especially, is a school of prodigality and waste. The only thing that a professional military man really studies, is to preserve his army from the power of the enemy. The preservation of the country around him, the moderate and economical use of commissary stores, drawn from the country, he makes no note of. How he shall whip the enemy or keep the enemy from whipping him is all he thinks of. This is so while his army is subsisting upon the people, and while it is necessary that every bushel of grain should be husbanded. The power of impressment is often placed in improper hands—bands of soldiers are allowed to prowl about and feed upon the public, or to steal and plunder every thing they can find. If retreat becomes necessary, it matters but little how much of the public stores are destroyed. This has been our misfortune ever since the war began, and now that provisions are alarmingly scarce, it matters not, the same improvidence and waste prevail.

Sherman has devastated the country through which he passed, but if what we learn be true, the people in the counties of Cumberland, Harnett, Wake and Johnston have suffered nearly as much from our army. Many farmers we learn have not only had all their provisions taken from them, but their teams have also been taken, by which they are entirely unable to make another crop. The reason assigned for this course may be satsifactory to men in the army, but cool men must see the falsity of the position. It is said that our own army must deprive the country of bread and meat, horses, mules, and cattle or the enemy will take them. This may be so to a certain extent, but in many cases it is not so. Much might be placed out of the enemy's reach, to be used at a future day. What is really necessary for the army should be drawn from the people and paid for, but the policy of taking every thing as is done frequently, and then giving the owner neither pay or the promise of pay, is damaging to the cause, and so dispirits our farming people, that they have neither the heart nor the means to produce another crop.

If our commanders would look to the condition of the country as well as the army; if they would manifest a disposition to protect the people as well as the army, our people would be encouraged to labor and make sacrifices to sustain the army. But while so much waste and ruin are made by our army, many people are led to believe that the Yankees could not do much worse.

GENTLEMEN FROM Fayetteville, who have visited the place since the Yankees left, not only confirm the previous rumors we had heard, but give such accounts as heighten if possible our conceptions of the enormities which Sherman's men committed upon the defenceless citizens of that place. We will not attempt a circumstantial account of the atrocities committed, as we learn a full statement is in preparation for the public, but will simply notice a few facts.

The worst outrages were committed by the bummers, the first two hours after the advance reached the place, and before guards were placed at the dwellings. In a short time almost every house, kitchen and smoke-house were gutted, and their contents either appropriated or destroyed.—Almost every inch of ground in the cellars, gardens and lots were perforated by bayonets to discover buried articles. Beds and bedding, the clothes of men women and children, watches, jewelry, silver plate were taken, and in some instances crockery destroyed.

For five miles and more around the place, the destruction is said to be complete, in some instances nothing being left but the land. Negroes as well as whites were searched and their property stolen or destroyed. In one case a respectable gentleman was stripped and all his clothes taken except his shirt.

The Court House and Market were not burned as reported. The cotton factory of Mr. Brandt in the town was not destroyed, nor was the Beaver Creek factory. All the printing offices were destroyed. The Observer office was burned as heretofore stated. The presses of the Presbyterian were broken and the type thrown into pots and melted. Such was the state of destitution among the people, it is believed numbers must have starved, but for the timely aid afforded by the people of Chatham. Communities more highly favored where provisions can be obtained, should send supplies to that suffering but loyal and excellent people.

From all sources, we learn that the opinion prevails wherever the enemy has gone, that the policy of burying and hiding articles, or committing them to the care of servants, is bad policy. Scarcely any thing can be secreted from them. If articles cannot be sent away out of the enemy's reach, they had better be removed into the dwellings and allowed to take the chances.

The people of Fayetteville we are glad to say though greatly injured are not conquered. The fires of Southern devotion still burn in their bosoms, and they will still labor and pray and fight for the cause of Southern independence.

WE REGRET to learn that a despatch has been received by Gov. Graham which states that his sons Major John W. Graham and Capt. Robert D. Graham of the 56th Regiment N. C. Troops were wounded in the fight at Petersburg on Saturday morning last. We hope their wounds may prove slight.

LIBERAL. The Charlotte Bulletin of the 26th of March has five items of news copied from the Conservative—one of which is credited to the Progress and the other four to the Confederate.

A MOST TIMELY AND GENEROUS DONATION. The following articles were brought to Raleigh yesterday, by the Rev. Wm. M. Wingate for the sick and wounded, and were contributed by the good people of the Wake Forrest and a few citizens of the Rolesville district. The arrival of these supplies is most opportune, for as we have no market just now, and more wounded, by several hundred, to feed, than heretofore, the hospital stores have become very meagre—in fact, the patients are reduced literally to bread and meat. It should be mentioned to the credit of the donors that they had a very short notice, and have contributed often and generously to a hospital already existing in their midst. We hope other communities will emulate the thoughtful liberality of these friends of the soldier, and do likewise. We understand that a part of these delicacies will be carried by some member of the Ambulance Committee to the famishing wounded of Averasboro:

Fifteen bushels of potatoes, sweet and Irish; forty-two fowls; four jars of pickles; two bags of salad; one bag of dried fruit; two bags of biscuit; a quantity of cakes; some sausage; a dozen pies; a bottle of wine; twenty-five pounds butter; twenty dozen eggs.

TO THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS IN GENERAL J. E JOHNSTON'S ARMY. A regular Post Master having been appointed to serve in this army the better to facilitate the delivery of mails, parties writing to officers or soldiers of this command will be particular to give as address, the Company, Regiment, Brigade or staff on which they may be serving and say "Johnston's Army" as destination.

REPORTED DEATH OF GEN. HINDMAN.—The New Orleans Picayune of the 13th says:

It is reported that the rebel General Hindman, while en route to Mexico, was shot by persons unknown, but supposed to be Confederates, between Oak Hill and the Rio Grande. He had a number of wagons and ambulances freighted with tobacco, and, it is supposed, in addition, a considerable quantity of plate and coin. When killed, he was in the advance of the train.

A UNION MEETING IN WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA—SPEECH OF THE MAYOR.

The Yankees are making a grand parade over a Union meeting held in Wilmington on the 14th. The proceedings took place at the theatre, and are published in the Wilmington Herald of the Union, the Yankee paper there. We extract the following from the account, giving in full the names of the citizens published as being present:

A small detachment of Colonel Randlett's provost guard was stationed at the door, with strict orders to refuse admission to all officers and privates either of the army or navy. None other than citizens of the town were admitted, except the correspondents and reporters of the press of New York and other places, and possibly a few civilians following the army, whose dress made them unrecognizable.

In the throng that filled the body and galleries of the large house, we noticed a majority of the present male inhabitants of the town. Among the number present were the following well known citizens:

G O Van Amring, J R Blossom, W R Utley, George Myers, George Chadbourn, L A Hart, T Evans, J C Bailey, Dr Carr, H H Munson, L N Barlow, Dr McLinn, J Lyon, E A Keith, P W Fanning, J N Neff, David Aaron, Harry Webb, James Gorman, J Spelman, S W Holden, W H Coleman, C Hursell, Dr Schonwald, J N Strouse, E Kidder, John Bishop, P Shemill, H Hartz, W Sharpstein, A D Taylor, B D Morrell, A P Repiton, B J White, J Wilkinson, Mr Bates, James Dawson, T F Peck, A N Neif, Captain J E Lawton, Richard Bradly, James Shackleford, A Martin, W J Anderson, Dr. W J Love, Dr E Willis, W H Deneal, Miles Costin, William Peden, C C Morse, Daniel Baker, M Q Waddell, M Harding, James Grant, A J Howell, A J Murry, Dr W J Price, Col John McRae, Capt R J McCumber, Capt Vangrahn, D P Foster, J A King, J M Hardwick, John Savage, W M Lewis, S M West, C J Coney, Daniel Fergus, W A Williams, James C Hall, William Davis, L Meginny, D A. Smith, Nathaniel Jacobi, J Van Sickle, J C Wood, Dr Halden, J G Bauman, F M Augostini, M Augostini, M Hinning, James Mitchell, J H Parsons, T O Whitaker, T J Johnson, J P Sharpstein, A Martin, G W Williams, John Bremer, William Patten, Dr Anderson, R J Price, John Griffith, M Carr, L Madison, J D Wallace, John Wright, J W Corbett, J Petteway, William Petteway, C Tincken, C Polvogt, William Porter, H Girkin, Owen Hanchey, H Loeb, James Milvin, A V W Hewlett, D T Anderson, John Davis, H M Jenkins, A Adrain, J Meier, W H Woodhull.

In the dress circle were seated a large number of ladies, who seemed to be eagerly interested in the proceedings.

A Yankee band played "Rally Round the Flag" and the "Star Spangled Banner," and after that, John Dawson, the Mayor, made a speech, from which we take the following:

The arms of the United States have been victorious, and now occupy this city—the national flag again waves over us and in triumph—(cheers)—and we hope to enjoy the rights and privileges of citizens. (Applause) In years gone by, all over this vast land, from ocean to ocean, and from the great lakes to the gulf, every citizen felt proud to boast that he was an American, and wherever he looked upon that flag of his country, he was ready to exclaim:

"Long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

My friends, let us to-night forget and forgive all past political differences, and live for the future, resolving that from henceforth it shall be our aim and object to secure peace, promote prosperity, and add to the glory and grandeur of our common country. [Prolonged applause.]

The resolutions adopted were similar to those passed by a meeting of the same sort in Savannah. We give two or three of them:

Resolved, That we will remain at our homes and cheerfully submit to the authority of the National Government, pledging to it a loyal obedience and hearty support.

Resolved, That we believe that, by this course, we are promoting not only the interests of Wilmington, but also of the State of North Carolina, by doing what is in our power to restore her to the Union in which she enjoyed so great prosperity in the past, and in which alone she can look for peace and republican freedom for the future.

Resolved, That assuming in good faith the obligations of citizens of the United States, we do not place ourselves in the attitude of a subjugated people, but claim the rights and privileges guaranteed by the Constitution to American citizens, and assured to persons, in our peculiar condition by the proclamation of the President.

Resolved, That we call upon our fellow citizens of North Carolina to join with us in protesting against the madness of the authorities of the State in urging the prosecution of this fratricidal war for a cause which we believe to be hopeless, whose continuance will only render our ruin more remediless in the end, and which is waged for the sake of a Government in which the people have justly lost all confidence.

DIARY OF SHERMAN'S MARCH.

A correspondent of the Herald gives the following diary of events connected with Sherman's march from Savannah to Fayetteville:

JANUARY.

16th—Right wing (15th and 17th corps) transferred from Savannah to Beaufort.

23—Gen. Sherman transferred headquarters from Savannah to Beaufort.

25th—Left wing delayed by rains in camp, seven miles from Savannah.

27th—Advance of the left wing reached Sister's Ferry.

29th—Right wing moved from Pocotalligo towards the Columbia river. Left wing in camp at Sister's Ferry, delayed by rains and high water.

30th—Right wing moving along Savannah and Charleston Railroad, and between the railroad and McPhersonville, encountering small parties of the rebel cavalry. Left wing still at Sister's Ferry.

FEBRUARY.

2d—Right wing moved to Brighton's bridge, over the Saltketcher, when the enemy made resistance to the passage of the stream and burned the bridge.

5th—Right wing cross'd Whippy swamp. Left wing moved to Brighton, which had been burned by the rebel cavalry.

7th—Right wing at Bambury and midway on Charleston and Augusta railroad. Left wing moved to Lawtonville, which was burned by the Twentieth corps.

12th—Right wing made a rapid march from Orangeburg towards the Congaree and Columbia. The left wing tore up ten miles of the Charleston and Augusta Railroad.

13th—Left wing crossed the South Edisto river.

14th—Left wing crossed the North Edisto river.

16th—The right wing confronting Columbia. Left wing marched to Hart's ferry, on the Saluda river, and crossed.

21st—The whole army was concentrated at Winnsboro, thus leading Johnston to suppose that it was Sherman's intention to push upon Charlotte.

22d—Right wing engaged in passage of the Wateree river at Pay's ferry. Left wing tore up the railroad above Winnsboro' and moved to Youngsville.

27th—Left wing still engaged in difficult passage of the Catawba. General Carlin had a fight with Wheeler's cavalry.

28th—Right wing moved from Camden towards Cheraw, encamping on Lynch's creek, and halting for three days, waiting for the left wing, delayed at the Catawba river, to get up.

MARCH.

1st—Left wing moved to Hanging Rock.

2d—Left wing marched to Horton's ferry or Lynch's creek.

3d—The left wing being up, the whole army crossed Lynch's creek.

6th—Davis crossed the Great Pedee and the whole army was massed to move on Fayetteville.

7th—Left wing moved to near Downing river.

8th—Right wing at Laurel Hill.

9th—The whole army marched on the several roads converging at Fayetteville to within twenty miles of the place.

10th—Marched to within ten miles of Fayetteville in line of battle, anticipating an engagement with Hardee. Kilpatrick's cavalry struck the rear of Hardee's retreating forces near Fayetteville, and engaged Hampton in one of the finest cavalry battles of the war.

11th—The whole army entered Fayetteville, having been engaged in the campaign for fifty four days, and having marched four hundred and forty three miles.

We are glad to see that the call from Governor Vance upon the people for provisions, is being liberally responded to throughout the whole State.

We can scarcely pick up a paper without finding the proceedings of one or more meetings from different counties, in each of which the greatest enthusiasm is apparent. This, to our mind, is a move in the right direction.

Our armies must be supplied, and he would be a dastard who would refuse to divide his all with those brave men, who, for four long years, have presented an unbroken front in the face of the foe. The ration question is our greatest enemy. It is more to be feared than all the mighty hosts the North can bring against us. Feed our armies and they will win; starve them and they can but lose. We have never doubted that our people, when the emergency arose, would even place themselves on half rations, in order to sustain the army.

In our humble opinion, there was really no necessity existing for passing the impressment bill. Its enforcement only tends to irritate the masses, and drive to places of seclusion the fat of the land. Ask a man for a dinner in a respectful manner, and if he possesses one spark of generosity he will give it you; but take him by the collar, and with sundry twists of his cravat, demand it, and in nine cases out of ten he will see you starve before he will give you a crust.

Independence is what we are fighting for, and when the iron rule of bad legislation is brought to bear upon us, we all endeavor to repel it to the extent of our abilities. Let us have no more of the hideous monster Impressment. Let it be known to the country when Gen. Lee needs provisions for his army, and the people of the Old North State will respond to his call with alacrity.—Charlotte Bulletin.

DEATH OF LIEUT. COL. ED. MALLETT.

The sad intelligence has just reached us, that Lieut Colonel Ed Mallett, of this village, was mortally wounded in a skirmish, eight miles below Smithfield, about sun down on Tuesday the 21st instant, and died at 7 o'clock the next morning.

Col. Mallett was a native of Fayetteville; graduated at the University of North Carolina in June 1849; married and engaged in agricultural pursuits shortly thereafter; was a citizen of Craven and Colonel of the militia of that county at the beginning of the war; raised a company and entered the Confederate service some time previous to the battle of Newbern, and was in constant hard and dangerous service from that time to the close of his career.

He completed the 38th year of his age on the 14th ult, and leaves a wife whose declining health was the subject of the deepest solicitude, as manifested by his latest utterances, during the dying hour. Five children survive him.

He probably leaves no friends who enjoyed better opportunities to form a correct opinion of his true character than the writer of this brief note. He was honest generous truthful candid and brave and intensely devoted to the maintenance of the cause in which he fell. His native State among the numerous hosts which have gone forth to battle in her defence can point to no truer or more disinterested instance of patriotism.

A more extended notice is justly due to his memory, and will appear in due time from a competent pen.

Chapel Hill, March 24th, 1865.

The Empress Eugenie has just lost a law suit which has been in progress for several years in the Supreme court of Madrid. The Empress claimed the Countesship of Miranda and the vast estates attached to that ancient title, her right to which has been successfully disputed by the Malpican family.
